

Living the Easter Mystery

An Ecumenical Lenten Resource for 2014

Historically, Lent has been a time of preparation for the blessings of the Easter season. It is hoped that Christians from different backgrounds will be able to come together to reflect on how Lent can still be meaningful today.

This Ecumenical Resource offers suggestions for five group sessions in Lent 2014. These five sessions lead us through:

- ❖ As Disciples
- ❖ Into New Life
- ❖ Into the Suffering of Others
- ❖ From Woundedness to Healing
- ❖ Into Justice – confronting the powers

Scriptural passages, reflections on the Gospel, contemporary insights, art and ideas for practice and action in daily life are offered for exploration, consideration and imagination. Feel free to use them in ways that open up conversation and reflection, making space for sharing new insights about the individual journey and growth in Christ.

Forming Groups locally and ecumenically

Are you willing to be a contact person for your area and to assist groups to be formed that are as ecumenical as possible?

Groups of around 5-8 people probably works best. Try to include people from different churches...contact neighbouring churches and invite the people to form clusters of groups with you and with others.
