Peace Lamps from The Holy Land

SA Council of Churches (SACC) invites you and your community to continue to pray for peace among all peoples in the Middle East. We also invite you to buy a Peace Lamp from The Holy Land.

The Peace Lamps are made in Taybeh, a small Christian village in the West Bank, 25 kms north east of Jerusalem. The making of the peace lamps is an initiative of the Olive Branch Foundation in Taybeh, providing employment for more than 20 young people, who otherwise, without hope and job prospects would not be employed, but forced to leave the village as many have done over the last 30 years. Their goal is to 'place a Peace Lamp in every single church in the world, and to unite as many Christians and people of faith in a common prayer for peace in the Holy Land.' To date, SACC has purchased more than $16,000 worth of peace lamps/doves from Taybeh, Palestine, and thereby generating employment for young people in the village. Additionally, in the past two years SACC has returned to the Holy Land a surplus of $3,600 from sales for various projects. For example, at Easter 2015 $1,000 was sent to help a Centre for the Elderly in the West Bank. At Christmas 2015 we were delighted that we could share from family to family again, through donation of $1,000 to assist in Christmas celebration and feelings of being remembered for 350 Christian families in Gaza.
