

Stories on the Ecumenical Journey

Magill Inter Church Council celebrates 70 years of ecumenism

To celebrate 70 years of ecumenism in South Australia, Magill Inter Church Council (MICC) sponsored an “ecumenical historical walk” on Sunday 15 October 2017. The walk began at Church of Christ and proceeded to St George’s Anglican where we had a guided tour of this beautiful historic church and cemetery. After leaving St George’s we walked to Pilgrim Lutheran for afternoon tea and a brief review of the history of ecumenism in South Australia, facilitated by Geraldine Hawkes, Ecumenical Facilitator, SA Council of Churches.

15 October 2017

St George’s Anglican Church and pilgrims from the day.

At St George's Anglican Church, Magill, on Sunday 15 October 2017.

Dr Colin Cargill, Uniting Church appointee to SACC Ecumenical Partners for Justice and Peace.